11. Remarks on script	None
12. Format	Single sheet folded twice into a square of half the former's size and then again several times, notably along the diagonals of the square, so as to be carried as a protective amulet.
13. Size	27.5 × 26.2 cm
14. Layout	This stained square piece of paper is painted with an unidentified yantra diagram composed centrally.
15. Illustrations and decorations	The yantra diagram is composed of two concentric octagons following the cakra type and an outer range of flames separated from each other by bands painted pink. The paper of the inner octagon is apparently reserved, while the background of the outer one is painted pink. The latter octagon possesses four blue, red, green, and yellow petal-like blades indicative of the cakra 's destructive power. Outside burn blue, yellow, red, green, and white tongues of fire, which represent wisdom and protect from negative forces.
