Handwritten marginal note in a cursive script, possibly a commentary or correction.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, organized into several lines. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a calendar or a record. Some words are written in red ink, likely indicating specific dates or important events. The script is dense and characteristic of historical manuscript writing.

Handwritten marginal note on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in a script, possibly Indic, on aged paper. The text is arranged in several lines, with some characters appearing to be in a different script or dialect. The paper shows signs of wear and discoloration.
