Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Gothic or similar, on aged parchment. The text is arranged in approximately 10 lines, with some lines starting with a large initial letter. The script is dense and characteristic of the late Middle Ages. The parchment shows signs of age, including discoloration and some wear at the edges.

Vertical marginal notes or annotations written in the same script as the main text, located on the left side of the page.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript, written on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in two lines, with the first line being significantly longer than the second. The script is dense and difficult to decipher, but appears to be a form of historical shorthand or a specific dialect. The paper shows signs of wear, including stains and discoloration.
