Fragment of an ancient papyrus scroll with handwritten text in a cursive script, likely from the Dead Sea Scrolls. The text is written in dark ink on a heavily textured, brownish-gold surface. The fragment is irregularly shaped and shows signs of wear and damage, including several vertical and diagonal cracks. The handwriting is dense and difficult to decipher, but some words are visible, such as "יהוה" (YHWH) and "אשר" (asher), which are common in Hebrew biblical texts. The fragment is oriented horizontally and appears to be a portion of a larger document.
