T.O.

Their home is near to the old home of the late Isaac Lewis, a little above. A two-room house has in front of it a very big catchment and tank. The kitchen big and tidy with rows of tobacco drying under the ceiling. A new buttery in a separate building freshly built. Round the house a garden with flowers mixed with cassava. The homestead strikes ~~xxxx~~ as very well cared for. The pig has a pen enclosed by a barbed wire fence.

Olga was cooking in the kitchen and we sat for a while there. But as the place was full of smoke she proposed to go outside. The benches were taken and we sat in front of the kitchen looking at the little garden. Isaac was joining us from time to time, but he was busy putting in order some boards etc.

Their household consists of:

Lewis Isaac	head	M.M.	32
" Olga	wife	F.M.	24
" Beril	dau	F.S.	4
" Cleve	son	M.S.	2
" Hilton	son	M.S.	2/12/
Simpson Laurraine	sister-in-law		15

Isaac is the bastard son of ~~olaxx~~ the late Isaac Lewis (see F.R. 139). Isaac's mother ~~xxxx~~ Irene Sinclair married a Mr. Morgan in Comma Pen where she lives now and "has a lot of pickenies". When I was passing the home of Isaac yesterday there was a young boy who told me he was from Comma Pen. He was a half brother of Isaac, and came on a visit. The children of Mrs. Morgan visit Isaac frequently. ~~xxxx~~ up in his father's home.

Isaac was brought

His wife is Olga daughter of Izan and Martha Simpson (see F.R. 61) They married 5 years ago. Izan first built the house and then married Olga. After Olga has finished school she went to learn sewing. Her teacher was Mrs. Powell in Chocolate Hole. She is teaching sewing now her younger sister Laurraine, ~~xxxx~~. They wouldn't tell me however what the girl was learning now, not that they didn't want to but found it difficult to explain. Probably the lesson is not a very rigorous one. Olga's other younger sister Vedella came here, "on a visit". Olga's other sister Elda lives in the next house higher up. She married Cla Ston Holness.

The land. When the conversation turned to the land Isaac ducked into his buttery. Olga said she didn't know how much land they had. She thinks it is 2½ acres round the house. Isaac works on it alone.
