Viola Doyle's Mother is Maud Genas/(dead), her mother's mother, Margaret Carter/(see F.R. No.) Her father is Ezekiah Marks who lives at New Roads, Warsop, and his mother Mrs. Jessie Marks lived at New Roads but she died long ago.

Norman Doyle told me that he rented 1 acre of land from Syl. Brissett at 30/- an acre he plants "yams and every little t'ing" After he has finished planting on his ground he generally works for Mr. Brissett in his field for 2/- a day. My. Syl does not give lunch. "im afi well love you fi gi' you lunch, i' jus' like man a work fe notin' Norman was not willing to talk. He told me that the place belonged to William Clarke, Cubba's son, on 4.8.47 I was told that the place belonged to Cubba.

Mrs. Doyle leaned on the table which was about 1' from the wall placed her foot against the wall about 14" from the floor, rested her baby at her side and started to nurse him from her bresst. About 3 minutes after she told me that he was not taking the milk but was only playing with the breast, and she had to allow him to do that just to comfort him. She also told me that the child was spoilt and/account of him she could not get the chance to go and work. "Them tell we at the Clinic that we musn' feed the baby them often, but some time I don' 'ave what to feed them because my stomach is week."

Mrs. Doyle had a visitor - Mass Israel - she said to herself "I can' bear 'im". then she said aloud "What callest Thou" then he asked her to trust him come corn band, she replied "money a ha' an' back a groun'". They were all amused when she said this, the man went away without the corn band because he did not have the cash.
