Fragment of an ancient manuscript on aged, yellowed paper with irregular, torn edges. The text is written in a cursive script, likely Indic, and is arranged in approximately six horizontal lines. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of significant wear and discoloration. A prominent vertical crease or fold is visible near the center of the fragment. At the top center, there is a small, distinct red mark or stamp. The overall appearance is that of a well-preserved but heavily used historical document.
