Met Mrs. Ena Rutty on the main road - Bottom Warsop - near her house. This house is not yet finished. The land was bought only 2 years ago. Her husband bought it from Gene Carter who is the mother of Ena Rutty. Gene Carter's husband, Abel Carter is dead. He bought his land from an old lady Rose Hwett. She died 25 years ago and was very old then. She had the land from her father. She sold also a piece to old Andrew Woodfine.

Abel Carter sold some land 20 years ago to Campbell /William?/ It was 40 sh an acre at that time. Now it is 10 times more. Mrs. Rutty avoided the answer as to how much her husband paid her mother for the land. It must have been some "family arrangement" and was perhaps too difficult to explain.
