pp

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly Gothic or similar, on aged parchment. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be in a different script or dialect than others. The parchment shows signs of wear, including a small tear on the left edge.

Vertical handwritten text on the right margin, likely a marginal note or commentary.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a medieval manuscript. The text is arranged in several lines across the page. The script is dense and characteristic of the late Middle Ages. The first line contains a large initial 'M' followed by several lines of text. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a calendar or a record of events. The handwriting is somewhat irregular, suggesting it was written by hand. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including a small tear on the left side.

Vertical handwritten text on the right margin, possibly a date or a reference number. It appears to be written in the same cursive script as the main text.
