

Handwritten text in an ancient script, likely Coptic, arranged in five lines. The script is dark and appears to be a form of the Coptic alphabet. The text is written on a piece of aged, brownish parchment or leather. There are some faint markings and a small arrow-like symbol above the second line. The text is oriented vertically on the page.

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly Gothic, arranged in several lines within a decorative border. The text is dense and appears to be a fragment of a larger manuscript. The script is dark brown and shows signs of wear and fading. The parchment is aged and has a mottled appearance. The text is arranged in several lines, with some lines appearing to be part of a larger, possibly multi-columnar, text. The overall appearance is that of an ancient manuscript fragment.

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly Gothic or similar, arranged in several lines within a decorative border. The text is written in dark ink on aged, brown parchment. The script is dense and appears to be a form of liturgical or legal text. The parchment shows signs of wear, including some staining and discoloration, particularly towards the edges. The text is organized into columns by vertical lines, with some decorative flourishes interspersed.

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly Gothic or similar, arranged in several lines within a decorative border. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish-brown parchment. The script is dense and appears to be a form of liturgical or legal text. The parchment shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration. The text is organized into columns by vertical lines, with some decorative flourishes at the bottom.

Vertical text on the right edge of the parchment, possibly a page number or a reference mark, written in a smaller, less formal script.

[Faded text in Gothic script, arranged in columns. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through.]
