9. Translation of colophon	Recite this a hundred and eight times and write it down; if you can't, then recite it twenty-four times and write it down, or at least recite it seven times and write it down. Then cut the colored thread with a knife and put the paper with the spell in the container; then cover them with blood; visualise these wrathful tormas as the sixty messengers, cast them in the four directions or the direction of the cruel enemy. When you cast the ritual missile, call the gods to witness, invoke the truth, illuminate the path of rays, offer a libation. All these ritual steps are based on root-tantras texts; if you following these faultlessly, you can even repel the clutch of the lord of death, and will be able to avert untimely death. The ritual of the repulsion tormas [from the Black Kilaya] is completed. Blessings.
